3. Conner Johnson, Hunter Osuna and Josh Sullivan each had doubles as the Bulldogs beat the Vikings 16-1. On the mound Luke Wheeling and Conner Johnson combined to hold the Vikings to 1 run. Drakkar Funk added 3 RBI's as he continues to lead the club in that category.

5. Our girls' flag football team played their first ever doubleheader against Thurston and Pleasant Hill last night. In an exciting display of talent, Carley Lucero threw for 1 touchdown and rushed for another! Payton King contributed to the scoreboard with 1 touchdown and a successful two-point conversion. On the defensive end, Saylor Warnock and Lucy Danforth both made incredible plays with their pick-sixes! Great job, girls! Keep grinding on the field!
6. There will be a 5-minute meeting for Juniors interested in helping with prom on Wednesday, April 9th right after school in room 5.
7. Congratulations to NBHS Varsity and JV softball teams for their big wins over Newport last night. The first game saw the varsity "put a clinic" on the Cubs 17-4, lead by Erica McClintock's 3 runs and 3 RBI's. Kiera Morrow hit the bulldog's first homerun of the year but there wasn't much time to celebrate as the next batter Rowan Hampton sent a towering shot over centerfield fence. Rowan also was one pitch from an immaculate inning. Marissa was not going to let her sister show her up, as a result was 2 for 3 at the plate. Chloe Patton went 2 for 2 as well. The second game resulted in JV's drubbing of the cubs 26-4. Chloe Patton, Ailey Barich, Kenzie Prince, and Norma Curley all had extra base hits that led to a complete round trip. Next up for the JV is Coquille's varsity team on Saturday at noon. Varsity plays at Douglas on Monday.
